MANUAL

OF THE

College Street Congregational Church,

OF NEW HAVEN.

OCTOBER, 1858.

NEW HAVEN:
J. H. BENHAM, PRINTER, COR. CHAPEL AND CHURCH STREETS.
1858.

History.

The College Street Church was organized August 31, 1831, and consisted originally of twelve members. It commenced public worship in the Orange street Lecture Room, on the first Sabbath in September; from whence, in June, 1833, it removed to the Exchange Building; from thence, again, in September, 1836, to the house erected for its worship in Church street; and finally, in December, 1848, to its present house of worship in College street.

Its first settled pastor, Rev. Henry G. Ludlow, was installed May 31, 1837. For several years prior to his coming to New Haven, he had labored as pastor of the Spring street Church in New York, having been installed there in 1829. He was dismissed from the pastoral care of this church, March 8, 1842.

The present pastor, Rev. Edward Strong, was ordained December 14, 1842. He was born in Somers, Conn., graduated at Yale College in 1838, and pursued his theological studies partly at the New York Theological Seminary, and partly in New Haven, while tutor in the College.

Confession of Faith.

Art. 1. We believe that there is one only living and true God, the creator of all things, existing from eternity; that He is a Spirit, infinite in all possible perfections, and a sovereign, whose purposes and providence extends to all beings and events.

Art. 2. We believe that the mode of the divine existence is such as to authorize the distinction of Father, Son and Holy Spirit; and that these three are one God.

Art. 3. We believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments were given by inspiration of God, and are the sufficient and only rule of practice.

Art. 4. We believe that all men are created with power to perform either holy or sinful actions; that the standard of holiness is God's moral law, the transgression of which is sin, and its penalty endless misery; and that, without an atonement God could not pardon transgressors and maintain his government.

Art. 5. We believe that Jesus Christ, by his sufferings and death, hath made atonement for the whole world; and that all who repent and believe in him are freely pardoned and will be saved.

ART. 6. We believe that our first parents, by voluntary disobedience, fell from their original purity of character into a state of sin and condemnation, in consequence of which all men become the subjects of entire moral depravity, and for their sins deserve the wrath of God forever.

ART. 7. We believe that all true Christians are the elect of God, whom he hath, from the beginning, chosen to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth, and that, though free to fall, they will all be kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation.

ART. 8. We believe that all men, in order to be saved, must be born again; that the new birth is a moral change, in which, through the influence of the Holy Spirit operating with the word of truth, the transgressor freely turns from sin to holiness, with fixed purpose to love and serve God forever.

ART. 9. We believe that it is the duty of Christians to associate themselves for the worship and ordinances of the Gospel, and the extension of Christ's kingdom, and that any association of believers for these purposes is a Christian Church.

ART. 10. We believe that the sacraments of the Christian Church, are Baptism and the Lord's Supper; and that only believers and their children, or households, are proper subjects for Christian Baptism.

ART. 11. We believe that there will be a general resurrection and judgment of mankind; that Christ will judge the world in righteousness; and that the happiness of the righteous, and the misery of the wicked, will be perfect and everlasting.

To these articles the candidates will give their assent.

Summary of Belief.

You believe in one God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, who is the maker of all things, and is supreme in heaven and earth; in his divinely inspired word, as the only rule of faith and practice; in the fall and condemnation of man, and in God's sovereign purpose of grace and love; in the way of salvation through the sufferings and death of Jesus Christ; in the free offer of life to all in the Gospel; in the necessity of regeneration by the Holy Spirit, and of repentance and faith; in the justification of them that believe in the Lord Jesus, who is our righteousness; in the visible church of Christ, and its sacraments of Baptism and the Lord's Supper; in the sacredness of the Christian Sabbath as a day of worship and rest; in the promised grace to secure all true believers against utter apostacy; in the resurrection of the dead; in the future coming of Christ to judge the world; in the final award of everlasting life to the righteous, and of everlasting punishment to the wicked, beyond the grave.

Do you thus believe?

Covenant.

Professing deep repentance for your sins, you do now, in the presence of God and this assembly, avouch the Lord Jehovah to be your God—God the Father to be your father and preserver—God the Son to be your Savior and intercessor—God the Holy Spirit to be your sanctifier and comforter—and the Word of God to be your only rule of faith and practice: and you do give yourself away to God in an everlasting covenant, to love him supremely, and your neighbor as yourself; to labor, according to your ability, for Christ so long as you live.

You do also faithfully covenant that you will walk with this Church in all the ordinances of Christ, and in love and charity with its members; and will conscientiously labor to promote its purity, peace, union, and edification.

Do you thus covenant?

(Members of the Church will now rise.)

Most affectionately now, do we, the members of this church, receive you thus to our communion.

Joyfully we welcome you to all the ordinances which mark this house the house of God. We break with you this bread of life. We share with you this cup of blessing. We ask your aid in turning to our Master the souls of men. We covenant with you to hold your peace and welfare dear to us. We promise gladly to render our offices of love; and in all ways, so far as in us lies, to seek your growth in knowledge and in grace, your sweet experience of Christ's love, and your perfect meetness for the heavenly home.

BELOVED: THE LORD BLESS YOU, AND KEEP YOU: THE LORD MAKE HIS FACE SHINE UPON YOU, AND BE GRACIOUS UNTO YOU: THE LORD LIFT UP HIS COUNTENANCE UPON YOU, AND GIVE YOU PEACE! Amen.

Standing Rules.

BUSINESS MEETINGS.

It shall be the duty of the Pastor, when present, to preside at all business meetings of the Church. In his absence, a Moderator shall be chosen, who shall have a casting vote in case of an equality. The Annual Meeting of the Church shall be held in January.

STANDING COMMITTEE.

This Committee shall consist of the Pastor, Deacons, and at least three additional brethren; the latter to be annually chosen. It shall be their duty to examine candidates for admission to the church, to present cases of discipline, and assist the Pastor, as they may be able, in the visitation of members of the church and congregation.

ADMISSION OF MEMBERS.

Candidates for admission to this church by profession, after an examination and approval by the Standing Committee, shall be propounded at least one week previous to their admission.

Persons may be admitted from other Evangelical churches, provided they assent to the confession of faith, and their certificates of dismission and recommendation be presented at least one week previous to their being received.

Members in regular standing in other Christian churches, are welcomed to communion with this church at the Lord's table. But, at the expiration of a year, they are expected to present to the church letters of recommendation from the churches to which they belong, or explain the reason for not doing so.

DISMISSION OF MEMBERS.

Whenever any member of this church, in good standing, shall ask for a dismission and recommendation to any Church of Christ, it shall be granted; and members, on removal from the city, or on uniting permanently with another congregation, shall be required to take a dismission from us, and unite with some church in or near the place where they reside, within one year. When this is not done, they should explain to the church the reason for further delay.

DISCIPLINE.

1. Members are proper subjects for discipline, who are immoral in their lives; who embrace heretical opinions; who unnecessarily neglect the public worship of God; who refuse to contribute, according to their ability, for its support; who absent themselves from the Lord's Supper; who traffic in or use intoxicating drinks, except for manufacturing or medical purposes; or whose general deportment is grossly inconsistent with the spirit of the Gospel.

2. The object of discipline being to keep the church pure, deter others from sin, and benefit the offender, we hold its watchful exercise to be a solemn and important duty.

3. In all cases of private offences, the rule as given in the 18th chapter of Matthew's Gospel, is to be strictly observed.

4. In cases of public and notorious offenses, the church, as a body, may proceed to call the offender to an account, by a committee appointed for that purpose.

MISCELLANEOUS.

1. All questions shall be decided by a majority of votes given by male members, not under 18 years of age, present at any meeting of the church duly notified.

2. No business, connected with discipline or other important matters, shall be transacted at any meeting of the church, unless public notice is given, in connection with the appointment of the meeting, that business will then be brought before the church.

3. It shall be the duty of the brethren, as far as possible, to attend the meetings appointed for the transaction of business.

4. The Sabbath School shall be under the direction and supervision of the Church; and the Superintendent shall make to the Church, annually, a report of its condition.

5. No alteration shall be made of these rules, or in the confession of faith, except by a vote of two-thirds of the members present at a regularly notified meeting for this purpose.

NOTICES.

Members who remove from the city, or change their names, as by marriage, are requested to apprise the Pastor or Clerk of it, that the catalogue of names may be kept as accurate as possible.

Members in whose families are cases of severe sickness, or of special religious impressions, requiring the attention of the Pastor, are requested to give him information of it.

Persons desirous of uniting with the church, or of conferring with the Pastor, are requested to meet him after the exercises of the weekly lecture, on Tuesday evening, or after any lecture preparatory to the Lord's Supper.
